

Math Resources

First Literacy – April 7, 2017

SABES PD Center for Mathematics and Adult Numeracy

“The SABES PD Center for Mathematics and Adult Numeracy is managed by the Adult Numeracy Center at TERC, located in Cambridge, MA. Our center helps adult learners understand how math is present and relevant in everyday life, and how they can use this knowledge to improve their lives and communities. For more information, please contact our director, Donna Curry, at donnac@qwi.net or 617-873-9600.”

<http://sabes.org/pd-center/math>

National Institute for Literacy, Algebraic Thinking in Adult Education, Washington, DC 20006(Downloadable PDF)

https://lincs.ed.gov/publications/pdf/algebra_paper_2010V.pdf

Kate Nonesuch’s Blog: Teaching in Adult Literacy (Includes a lot about math)

<https://katenonesuch.com/resources/math/>

Pam Meador, Utilizing Correct Mathematical Language (2016). Blog Post.

Retrieved from

<https://adultnumeracyatterc.wordpress.com/2016/11/10/utilizing-correct-mathematical-language/>