READ ABOUT SEEDS

What is the name of your seeds? __________________________

What kind of plant will your seeds grow into? __________________

What part of the plant do people eat? ________________________

What climate is best for this plant? _________________________

What sort of soil does it like to grow in? ____________________

What time of year should you plant your seeds? ________________

How long will your seed take to germinate? (How many days?) ______

How many days after the seeds are planted will the food be ready to harvest? ________________________________

How far apart should your seeds be planted? ____________________

How deep should the soil over seeds be? ______________________

Open the packet. Look at the seeds.
Draw the seed shape and size.