

serve	work for	defend or protect	keep safe arms	weapons (guns, bombs)	on behalf of	for armed forces	military	combat	fighting bear arms	carry weapons use weapons	noncombatant	not fighting currently	now	register	sign up to do something owe	need to pay	vote	choose a leader tax	money we pay the government	tell the truth	give an honest answer nonresident	someone who doesn't live in the U.S.	organization	group of people who do something communism	no freedom for example Cuba	totalitarian	The government controls everything. terrorist	people who kill many people example 9/11/2001	advocate	tell people to do something overthrow	change the government by force	overdue	late persecute	discriminate against people because you don't like them	Nazi Germany	bad leaders of Germany who killed many people port of entry	the city where you first came into the U.S.	national origin	the place where you were born legal	ok with the law	smuggle	take things across a border illegally illegal	not ok with the law (against the law)	prostitute	someone who gives sex for money gamble	play games for money	immigration benefit	for example, green card or citizenship crime	something against the law	misrepresentation	a lie not true commit a crime	break the law; do something against the law	fraudulent	not true arrested	The police take you to jail.	misleading	not true charged	You have to go to court for a trial.	false or fake	a lie not true court	a place with a judge	leave	go away innocent	You didn't do anything bad.	deserted	ran away from guilty	You did something bad.	desert the military	run away from the military convicted	The jury decides you are guilty.	exemption	something you don't need to do probation	You are convicted but you don't go to prison. The court will supervise you.	opinion	what you think about something sentenced by a judge	The judge sends you to prison or says you must pay a fine.	political opinion	what you think about the government paroled	get out of prison early	public benefit	For example: food stamps, housing or welfare drunkard	someone who drinks too much alcohol	deported	sent back to your country habitual	repeating the same thing every day	mentally ill	confused, sick in the mind habitual drunkard	someone who drinks too much alcohol every day	legally incompetent	very, very mentally ill

