

Business Problems

It's not easy to run a business. Different businesses have different problems.

Read the problem. Think about the business. Then, write "YES" or "NO".

Problem	Nail Salon?	Child Care Center?	CVS/ Pharmacy?	Hotel?
The power goes off and the business must throw away items.
Customers leave because they are tired of waiting for help.
Workers often quit suddenly.
Workers don't want to work weekends.
There is a robbery.
The Board of Health finds problems.
A customer complains the business is not clean.
The business must follow many city and state rules.
Customers use a bad check to pay.
Workers give customers the wrong change.
Workers steal money from the business.
Workers steal items from the business.
The business must close because of bad weather.
The boss doesn't have enough money and she doesn't pay the workers.

