

What Do You Say? Teacher's Script

Listen to the story. Then, answer the question. Tell me what you would say.

1. Your child is ____ years old. You can't find your cell phone. You look and look. Your child finds the phone and brings it to you. You praise him. What do you say?
2. Your child is ____ years old. Her older sister yelled at her. She said, "Stupid" and "Go away!". You comfort her. What do you say?
3. Your child is ____ years old. It is a very cold day, but she will not wear her coat. You warn her. What do you say?
4. Your child is _____ years old. You are outside talking to a friend. Your child walks into the street by himself. You scold him. What do you say?
5. Your child is _____ years old. He brings you a picture book. You encourage him to read the book. What do you say?
6. Your child is ____ years old. He points to an apple and says "orange". You encourage him to talk. What do you say?
7. Your child is _____ years old. Your child tries to touch a very hot pan on the stove. You warn her. What do you say?
8. Your child is _____ years old. He is angry. He bites his sister. You scold him. What do you say?
9. Your child is ____ years old. It is 11:00 PM but he will not go to sleep. He is afraid. He thinks that there is a monster under his bed. You comfort him. What do you say?
10. Your child is _____ years old. After she plays with her toys, she puts them away in her toy box. You praise her. What do you say?
11. Your child is ____ years old. Your child is learning to ride a bicycle. She falls off and hurts her leg. You comfort her. What do you say?
12. Your child is _____ years old. She tells you she can't do her homework. You encourage her to try. What do you say?