

Most Frequently Dictated Sentences

January 1, 2019 through October 26, 2022

Columbus Day is in October.
The people elect the Congress.
There are one hundred U.S. Senators.
The White House is in Washington, D.C.
The President lives in the White House.
California has the most people.
Washington was the first President.
American people pay taxes. (Or "We pay taxes.")
Citizens have the right to vote. (Or "Citizens can vote.")
Lincoln was the president during the Civil War.
Presidents' Day is in February.
Thanksgiving is in November.