

NOTE: In the introduction, the thesis is broken up into 3 colors. These colors start each body paragraph. They are also included in the conclusion to show you how each color summarizes the main ideas.

Thesis: topic + opinion + 3 main ideas

Travel is amazing because opens us up to new cultures, forces us to communicate in new ways, and awakens the senses to the irresistible smells of food.

Travel is amazing because of the new cultures, ways to communicate, and trying new food.

Your Name

Writing 3

Oct. 6, 2017

Travel Is Amazing

What makes travel so amazing? One trip to another country opens the mystery, wonder, and delight of the place. Travel enlightens the mind and feeds the soul. One step onto a new land changes a person forever and in some, starts a lifelong passion of traveling to different places. It is through these exchanges or experiences that we grow as human beings. Travel is amazing because it opens us up to new cultures, forces us to communicate in new ways, and awakens/enlightens the senses to the irresistible/delicious smells of food.

First, travel introduces us to new cultures. That first step onto a new land can be interesting and fun. People are free to explore the customs of another country. Second, travel forces us to communicate in new ways. When traveling to another country, it can be scary trying to speak a language that feels foreign. In turn, a phrase book, a smile, and a few phrases can be very helpful. Third, travel awakens the senses to irresistible smells of food. Food awakens passions for new flavors.

In summary, when we travel we open our minds to experiences change us. They expand our ideas and help us discover truths that we might not have known existed. By experiencing different places, we force ourselves to communicate in new ways. We smile, say a few phrases and hope others understand us. This form of communication encourages tolerance of others and ourselves. Lastly, whether we buy food from a vendor on the street or sit down in an outdoor restaurant, food opens our senses and forever changes how we view the world. Travel is great, so go do it now!

*Note: The blue sentence is can be one of the following depending on the type of essay:

1. Suggestion
2. Recommendation
3. Prediction