Vowel teams in Animal Colors!

Can you find any words in this book with vowel teams? (What color are the parakeets?)

Practice reading Animal Colors Again!

The “parent” sets the stage (title, author)

Yay! It’s reading time again!

What’s the title of this book?

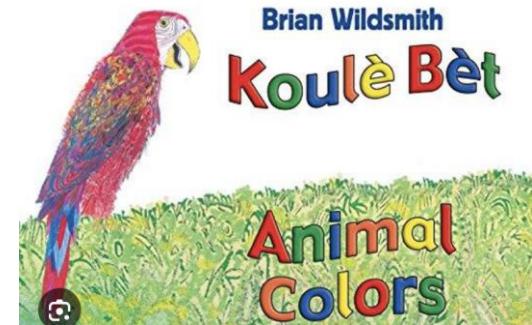

And who is the author?

What is this first animal?

How many pink flamingoes are there?

And what sound does a pink flamingo make?

Why are they standing in the water?

This is the end of class. But first...

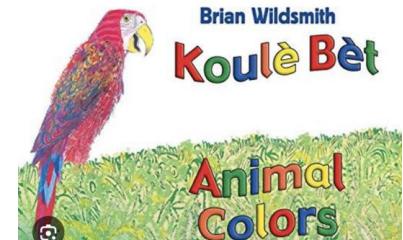

When is our next class?

Homework for next class!

- Record 1 page of Koulè Bèt - Animal Colors via WhatsApp. Set the stage and ham it up!

Please include:

- 1 open question and
- 1 closed question
- And loooooots of animal noises!!

This is the end of class today.

Please write a word that was new for you into the Zoom chat before you leave.

If you have any questions or comments, please send them to your teacher in a private WhatsApp message.

Extra practice: Tongue-twisters!

Tongue-twisters can help to build the muscle required to speak English. Take turns reading these sentences out loud. Which one is the most difficult?

- Danny's dog dances down the dirt road.
- Grace grabbed a group of green grapes.
- Polly Penguin painted pretty pictures on a pink paper.
- Silly Sally swiftly slides down the slippery slope.
- Timmy Turtle tiptoed through the tall tulips twice.
- Wendy's white wagon whizzed wildly down the winding road.
